

GOOD HORSES COMING FOR MID WINTER CARNIVAL

The Dixie Carnival Co has assurance that Marion Case of Annabella Henry Maclepraug of Cedar City and Edwin Higbee of Toquerville will have their race horses here for the Mid winter Carnival Dec 26 27 and 28

Judging by the interest being shown this years Mid winter Carnival will be better than ever

TO THE PEOPLE OF ST GEORGE CITY

The city officers and the officers of the Dixie carnival company appreciate your generous support given in the past in improving the city park and play ground and we are still in need of your cooperation and if the mid winter race carnival is made a success we will have to have your support in widening the race course

Any one who can assist us either single handed or with team come out December 17 and 18 and help do the required work

ALBERT E MILLER

Mayor

CANNON FAMILY REUNION

The descendants of George and Ann Cannon living in and near St George met in a family reunion Wednesday Dec 5th at 6 30 p m in the auditorium of the Dixie college There were present at the gathering President David H Cannon and Mrs Leonora C Gardner the only surviving children of George and Ann Cannon There were present of the descendants of David H Cannon Ann Cannon Woodbury and Leonora Cannon Gardner about 125 who reside in and near St George but this number included less than one half of the descendants of the three persons named the other parts of these families being scattered throughout Utah Idaho Arizona Wyoming Nevada California New Mexico Nebraska and Mexico in addition to several who are on missions in Europe

The program consisted of games in which young and old took part as well as dancing and the following program prepared for the occasion Song by the congregation Count Your Blessings Prayer by Joseph W Webb Song by the congregation Love at Home life of Ann Quayle Cannon by Eva Cannon Webb violin solo by Vera Seegmuller Gertrude Fawcett at the piano dance high land fling by Vera and Verna Harmon life of George Cannon by President D H Cannon Chorus Dixie by Lucile Worthen and company (the words of the song were composed by one of the Cannon descendants) poem in commemoration of Ann Cannon Woodbury composed and read by her daughter Leonora C Worthen reading an original poem in commemoration of the six Cannons by Grace Woodbury

Notable accomplishments of George Cannon's descendants by Laura Snow The author had been able to secure but a small part of the record but it showed among the descendants a United States senator member of congress member of State legislature adjutant general national guard many officers and soldiers in the World war county recorders county clerks county attorneys two mayors of St George city councilors sheriff superintendents of schools a great array of teachers besides doctors lawyers bank cashiers business men in many lines apostles presidents of stakes high councilors missionaries

Address by Leonora Cannon Gardner

DISTRICT COURT

The case of the City of St George vs Life Spendlove appeal from Justice's court demurrer was overruled and the case remanded to justice of the peace to carry out the sentence a fine of $360 The offence was allowing sheep to trespass on canal which furnishes culinary water for this city

Virgin Dome Oil Company vs W J Graham suit to compel defendant to account for 155 000 shares of stock issued to him A restraining order had been issued and the defendant sought to have this dissolved The court refused to dissolve the order and directed that the defendant file with the clerk of the court the shares of stock which he had in his possession at the time the order was issued

The young lady who will acknowledge that her sweetheart has any faults isn't far enough in love yet to make a real wife